

Buddhist Perspectives in Parenting
April 10, 17, 24, May 1: 4 Thursday evenings, 6-730pm
Hawaii Betsuin Temple Lounge
Emeritus Head of School, Pacific Buddhist Academy: Pieper Toyama

Course Objective:

Participants will explore, share, and develop parenting practices inspired by Buddhist values, beliefs, and perspectives. Through discussions, sharing, and reflection, participants will assess their current parenting practices. Through study and discussions, participants will engage with Buddhist teachings and then explore their applicability and relevance to their parenting practices.

Course Learning Opportunities:

By the end of the course, you will have the opportunity to:

- Reflect on and assess your current parenting practices
- Explore through readings, presentations, and discussions fundamental Shin Buddhist teachings that relate to parenting
- Develop effective parenting practices that are rooted in Shin Buddhist teachings
- Meet parents who share your concerns and learn from them.

Textbook:     None

Class Etiquette

All questions and inquiries are welcome. There is no such thing as a “silly” question or irrelevant point of view so feel free to ask questions, comment on, or even challenge the material presented in class.

Class Schedule

Session 1:     Introductions, Setting Directions, Sharing Basic Buddhist Teachings, Connections

Session 2:     Life as it Really Is: Daily interactions and communication. Guidance and conflict.

Session 3:     Life as It Really Is: Values and parenting practices

Session 4:     Now What? Putting the Path in order

Class schedule is subject to change and may be adapted to suit the interest of the course participants.