“TALK STORY” WITH REV. DR. NOBUO HANEDA

TOPIC: The Fulfillment of Human Life Shinran's View of the "Four Types of Buddhism"

About “Talk Story”

“Talk Story” is an important local cultural experience in which people share their life experiences as a way of building community. Within the Hongwanji, we invite special Dharma teachers to further our understanding and experience of Buddhism and the teachings of Shinran Shonin (founder of Jodo Shin Buddhism). We have an opportunity to listen to a Dharma teacher’s presentation and engage in a “talk story” dialogue. This event is free and open to the public.

About the Lecturer

Rev. Dr. Nobuo Haneda is a dynamic Dharma teacher who combines scholarship and passion in his presentations. His perspectives and insights into Shinran Shonin teachings will offer participants an opportunity to expand their understanding and experience of Jodo Shin Buddhism.

Rev. Dr. Nobuo Haneda was born in Nagano, Japan. He graduated from the Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, majoring in Russian. Having come to the U.S.A. in 1971, he received the Ph.D. in Buddhist Studies from the University of Wisconsin in 1979. He served as a lecturer at the Otani University in Kyoto, Japan, 1979-1981; dean and head professor at the I.B.S. in Berkeley, 1984-1985; and a researcher at the Numata Center in Berkeley, 1987-1997. Since then he has been director of the Maida Center of Buddhism. He has publications such as December Fan, Evil Person, Heard by Me, and Dharma Breeze.
