Golden Rule Historic peace boat

In 1958 Quaker activists sailed Golden Rule towards the Marshall Islands to interfere with atmospheric nuclear weapon testing. They were stopped and arrested in Honolulu, which spurred worldwide outrage that ultimately resulted in the Limited Test Ban Treaty of 1963.

Now, 61 years later, Veterans For Peace is sailing Golden Rule to Japan to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Once again, Golden Rule is in Honolulu, where you can visit her at Ala Wai small boat harbor (slip 638), the very place she was when the crew was jailed.

The little sail boat with a big mission - to stop the possibility of nuclear war - is on O'ahu through November 28.
